

I recently retired from headship, having worked in education for over 25 years. After graduating, I worked in industry for 5 years before qualifying as a teacher of modern languages in 1995. I began my teaching career in Salford before becoming head of department and then Deputy Headteacher. I took up a post in Birkenhead as deputy Headteacher in 2011 before becoming Headteacher in 2015.

I am married, have three grown up children and a dog! In my spare time I enjoy reading, walking and cooking.

I am delighted to join the board of trustees and hope that I can help to support the work of the school in providing the best possible educational opportunities for every student.
