Dear Parents and Carers

This week saw the production of 'The Boy in a Dress' take place on Wednesday and Thursday evening in the school hall. In almost 20 years of teaching, I honestly don't think I have smiled and laughed as much during any school production. The students, both in the cast and crew were magnificent. They are our future stars! Massive thanks to my colleagues who turned a script originally written for about a dozen characters in to one able to accommodate about 50 students.

On Wednesday I was incredibly proud to take part in a short service of remembrance outside the front of the school to mark Armistice Day. I am thankful to Tom Clarke in Year 11 and Mrs Phelan who organised the event. Some students arrived in full Cadet uniform, which added to the atmosphere. On Thursday, Mrs Phelan and our school Community Action Team held a Community Coffee Morning in which local members of our community dropped-in to meet our students, have a chat and share in some musical entertainment.

I was very pleased this week that Hilbre achieved the Investors in People Award. Comments made have been really encouraging and motivating. We look forward to continuing with our current trajectory of improvement and aim to achieve an even higher award next time around.
