Dear Parents/Carers

This week has been a superb example of how Hilbre is a thriving school in which educational enrichment and the individual and collective abilities of our students have been apparent.

Earlier in the week, seventy-two of our students from across year groups travelled down to London to see Nicole Kidman appear in a new play; Photograph 51. She was playing a scientist, Rosalind Franklin, the x-ray crystallographer who conducted crucial work on the structure of DNA. What an educationally rich treat that has been for our budding future scientists!

My sincere congratulations must go to a very talented young lady in our midst. Carol Sharpe-Stevens won two Bronze medals, last weekend, in the TaeKwon-Do Scottish Open held in Motherwell. One Bronze was won in Patterns for 14-17 year olds and one in Sparring for 15-16 year olds. The competition involved competitors from across the UK. What a brilliant achievement. Carol is pictured below with her medals.

Finally, I am delighted that we have now launched our Student Learning Community (SLC) and look forward to hearing the views from the SLC members about their educational experiences and general life at Hilbre.

Have a very good weekend,

Mark Bellamy
Interim Principal
