1. Introduction

- 1.1 The internet provides a range of social media tools that allow users to interact with one another. Examples of this are rediscovering friends on social networking sites, such as Facebook, keeping up with other people's lives on Twitter or maintaining pages on internet information areas such as Wikipedia.
- 1.2 While recognising the benefits of these social media sites for new opportunities for communication, this policy sets out the principles that Hilbre High School Humanities College staff are expected to follow when using them.
- 1.3 The principles set out in this policy are designed to ensure that all staff use social media responsibly so that confidentiality of staff and students and the reputation of the school are safeguarded.

Staff members should keep their passwords confidential, change them often and be vigilant about what they post online; it is not safe to reveal home addresses, telephone numbers and other personal information. It is good practice to have a separate e-mail address just for social networking so other contact details are not given away.

- 6.14 Staff members must ensure that any intimate body art (tattoos/piercings) are not displayed on the profile page of their social media site. This is to safeguard the staff member.
- 6.15 Staff members should read the non-statutory advice from the Department for Education for Cyberbullying for advice on internet usage.
